CONCEPT NOTE

With the rapid and uncontrolled growth of industrialization and increased money mongering, people are forgetting their shelter, the mother earth. Degradation of the environment is increasing and continues to be a burning problem and the humanity is strangely indifferent to these ominous signs of the impending apocalyptic moment. With a view to enhance eco-consciousness and awareness regarding the rapid environmental crisis, the present seminar will explore the wide ranging issues and challenges that our society faces because of the crisis.

SUB-THEMES

1. Poverty and environment
2. Population pressure and environment
3. Rural environmental problems
4. Urban environmental problems
5. Environmental crisis and Globality
6. Environmental crisis and degradation in quality of living
7. Environmental crisis and cultural challenges
8. Environmental crisis and public awareness
9. Environmental crisis and laws
10. Environmental crisis and social movements
11. Environmental crisis and role of media
12. Portrayals of environmental crisis in fiction and non-fiction
13. Portrayals in cinema and popular media
14. Portrayals in folk culture

Participants can also submit papers on any other relevant sub-theme addressing the focal theme.
